

Cindy Baranowski is a certified Histology Technician who has been with SJTRI since 2003. She is the Senior Histologist in the Plastic Lab with over 30 years of experience working with various plastic monomers. Her experience includes techniques in electron microscopy, undecalcified bone, stents and other implants. She is currently working to expand the selection of techniques our Plastic Lab can offer our clients.